Invitation MESSAGE

Endorsed by

Dear Friends & Colleagues

Nomoshkar from Kolkata !

We are excited to extend a warm invitation to the 45th Annual Conference of the Association of Radiation Oncologists of India - AROICON 2025, hosted by the AROI West Bengal Chapter, set to take place from November 27th to 30th, 2025, at the stunning Biswa Bangla Convention Centre, Kolkata.

We are embarking on a journey of knowledge, collaboration, and discovery, as we gather in one of India's most dynamic and culturally vibrant cities. AROICON 2025 promises to be a transformative event, bringing together practitioners and researchers from across the globe to engage in thought-provoking discussions and explore the latest innovations in radiation oncology.

With a stellar lineup of speakers, hands-on workshops, cutting-edge research presentations, and endless networking opportunities, this conference will be a celebration of progress and possibility. Whether you're looking to enhance your clinical practice, explore new frontiers in research, or simply connect with fellow professionals, AROICON 2025 will provide a platform to inspire and elevate your work.

As we prepare for this exciting gathering, we encourage you to stay connected with us via our website for updates on registration, the scientific program, accommodation, and more. Be sure to mark your calendars, as we promise an experience that blends scientific excellence with the rich cultural tapestry of Kolkata.

Join us as we come together to shape the future of radiation oncology. We look forward to welcoming you to Kolkata for what promises to be an unforgettable and impactful conference.

See you in Kolkata !

Cultural Heritage

Victoria Memorial

One of the most iconic landmarks of Kolkata, the Victoria Memorial is a grand marble edifice that pays homage to Queen Victoria.

Surrounded by lush gardens, this architectural marvel serves as a museum showcasing a rich collection of artefacts, paintings, and sculptures from the colonial era.

Howrah Bridge

Spanning the Hooghly River, the Howrah Bridge is not just a mere structure but an emblem of Kolkata's identity.

A masterpiece of engineering, this cantilever bridge connects the bustling city of Kolkata with the industrial hub of Howrah.

Marble Palace

A hidden gem in the heart of the city, Marble Palace is an architectural masterpiece that transports visitors to a bygone era. Built in the neoclassical style, the palace is adorned with marble walls, floors, and sculptures.

The extensive art collection within the palace includes paintings by renowned artists like Rubens and Reynolds, creating an artistic haven for those with an appreciation for fine arts.

Cultural Heritage

Dakshineswar Kali Temple

For a spiritual retreat, head to the Dakshineswar Kali Temple, situated on the eastern bank of the Hooghly River. Dedicated to Goddess Kali, this temple is renowned for its exquisite architecture and serene surroundings. Pilgrims and tourists alike flock to witness the divine beauty of the deity and soak in the tranquillity that pervades the temple premises.

Indian Museum

Established in 1814, the Indian Museum in Kolkata is one of the oldest and largest museums in India. It houses an extensive collection of artefacts, ranging from ancient sculptures to rare manuscripts.

The museum provides a comprehensive journey through India's cultural evolution, making it a must-visit for history enthusiasts and anyone keen on unravelling the mysteries of the past.

Biswa Bangla Gate

Opened in 2019, Biswa Bangla Gate was part of New Town's beautification project, meant to represent Bengal's progress. Originally planned to feature a suspended globe, the idea was scrapped due to technical issues. Standing 55 meters tall, it remains a striking landmark with a glass-walled viewing gallery and India's first hanging restaurant.
